

Norlan' Winds - Words Violet Jacob, tune Jim Reid

*Oh tell me whit was on yer mind - ye roarin' Norlan' wind, as ye cam' blawin' frae the land that's never frae my mind?
Ma feet they traivel England, but I'm deein' for the North.
"Ma man, I've seen the siller tides rin up the Firth o' Forth."*

*Aye wind, I ken them weel enough, and fine they fa' and rise and fain I've felt the creepin' mist on yonder shore that lies.
But tell me, as ye passed them by, whit saw ye on the way?
"Ma man, ah've rocked the rovin' gulls that sain abune the Tay"*

*But saw ye nothin', leein wind, afore ye cam' tae Fife?
There's ,muckle lyin' ayont the Tay means mair tae me than life.
"Ma man, I've trod the Angus braes ye have'nae seen for years"
Oh wind, hae mercy, haud yer wheesht, I daur'nae listen mair.*

*"And far abune the Angus straths, I saw the wild geese flee - a lang, lang skein o' beatin' wings, wi heids towards the seas.
An' aye their cryin' voices trailed ahint' the mornin' air."
Oh wind, hae mercy, haud yer wheesht, I daur'nae listen mair.*

*Have a great summer!
Hope you enjoyed the evening!*
